Threat Of New Bush Fires Hanging Over Province

Timber-dry forest areas of northern Alberta may break into flames at any moment. The warning came today from J. L. Jansen, Alberta chief timber inspector. He said every precaution against fire must be taken by persons using the woods as prolonged, extremely hot weather has parched the forests and has sent the fire hazard skyrocketing.

"Reports from rangers and timber inspectors in almost all parts of the north and central areas of the province say the hazard is higher than it has been all spring," Mr. Jansen said. "Until rains come the forest areas are liable to explode into flames at any moment."

THREE NEW FIRES

Three new fires, all in the Slave Lake area, were reported overnight. Meanwhile, fire fighters made some progress against other blazes which broke out earlier.

A 15-acre crew brought under control one new fire located near the east end of Slave Lake.

A smaller fire is burning south of the lake, and the third of the new blazes, located in the Kinsmen area south and east of Slave Lake, was controlled by a three-man crew.

Still burning out of control are two serious blazes, one in the north near Fort Smith and the other west of Calling Lake. A 20-acre crew with two bulldozers is battling the Calling Lake blaze, and a crew with equipment is making its way towards Fort Smith.

UNDER CONTROL

Other crews yesterday brought under control fires southwest of Whitecourt, near Brown in the Altitude flats area and west of Fort Vermilion.

Smoke pall which hangs over Edmonton today is coming from settlers' land fires, chiefly in the area north from Clyde to Alberta.

Though burning of brush on farms and settlements is prohibited, considerable illegal burning is going on. "Municipal authorities in the various districts are taking action against the illegal brush burning," he said.

Dead Man's Nose Said Nearly Off

Details of Death Brought Out At Murder Trial

Evidence that Wei Hon Pon's nose was practically severed was offered today as trial of Mrs. Marie Smith, 20, charged with his murder, continued in Supreme Court.

Under cross-examination, Dr. M. M. Carter, provincial coroner, said the wound was such that it led him to believe the man's nose had been bitten.

The coroner said the dead man weighed between 135 and 140 pounds and was "reasonably well muscled for a man of his size and age."

He stated the Chinese would have been capable of carrying a considerable weight but declined to state if he could carry a struggling person.

"Death occurred from loss of blood as a result of stab wounds in the chest," he stated in reply to a question by Mr. Justice Boyd McMeiride. "Bleeding was internal."

MANY STAB WOUNDS

The coroner testified slain man's body was found in the front part of his store at 96 street and 102A avenue.

The entire upper part of his body was marked with stab wounds.

Blood also was found in another part of the store with a 14-gauge nail leading from one to the other.

In both morning and afternoon sittings yesterday, women predominated over men in the courtroom audience.

Twenty, 20-year-old bride was arrested, 20 after she and her husband reported to police that she had stabbed the Chinese groceryman, a prominent member of the city Chinese society, in a struggle in his store.

In his evidence, Dr. Carter testified both the trouser pockets had been pulled out and that the pocket linings were bloodstained.

He told of finding one earring on the floor near the body and another in the drain of the wash basin at the rear of the store.

Bloodstains were found on the wall near the body at 4 p.m. to meet with him at 4 p.m.

Mr. Trussers were disarranged but his clothing was otherwise intact, Dr. Carter stated. He was wearing trousers, shirt, vest, underwear, and no shoes or socks.

Case is being heard before Mr. Justice Boyd McMeiride. Defense counsel is Guy Peterson, K.C.

Testimony yesterday was also given by Constable William Maloney, Robert Gillies, William Maloney and Inspector M. A. Kelly.

GOLDEN APPLE TRICK WORKS AGAIN IN U.K.

LONDON, June 13.—(Reuters)—Black market fugitives in a trick borrowed a trick from Greek mythology to try to shake off police in a 60-mile-a-hour chase through London streets yesterday.

The God Milonian dropped three golden apples when he raced with Atlanta to try to win her hand. Stopping to pick them up, she lost the race.

These modern Milonians had no golden apples, but something almost equally valuable in post-war Britain—cigarettes. They tossed eight large packages of cigarettes right in the path of the pursuing police car. Chase went on for 30 minutes until the men abandoned the truck and took to their heels.

During the war years she devoted her full time to service work and in 1946 was awarded the Red Cross Service Badge for the district.

She was an active member of the O.C.P.R. before her illness and was honored by the members of Jasper Lodge in a special funeral service held in the funeral chapel.

Rev. Les McKay officiated at the ceremony in the United Church and interment was made in Jasper cemetery.

Green Light Crossing

An open letter, (I'm out of stamps), to Mayor Sidney Parsons:
Dear Your Worship:
I see where you have been warning motorists who don't give pedestrians their legal rights.

As a pedestrian of long standing and walking too, I thank you very much. As a matter of fact I went right out to see how motorists are obeying your orders.

I got a green light at the corner of Jasper Avenue and 100 street. A guy in an eight-cylinder Duesenbuzer got my right pant leg.

But I kept right on walking, knowing you are right behind me. Then another guy in a four-cylinder roadster with a California top sheared off my left torso leg.

That didn't scare me either. You're backing me up, and besides it was a lot cooler in shorts.

Midway through the intersection a model T took the seat out of my pants.

That scared me because a fellow can get picked up for over-exposure especially in that hot sun.

So I jumped on the running board of a passing fire truck and with my back to the hook and ladder I got safely across Jasper when the truck turned into 104 street.

I'm writing you this, Mr. Mayor, because I'm sure you will be glad to know how easy it is to cross Jasper Avenue on a green traffic signal.

Hoping you never get your signals crossed.

I remain, fanatically Yours,
Jack DeLong.

Beating the Heat

An Edmonton housewife telephoned yesterday to tell me how she is beating the heat wave on ironing days.

She dresses in halter and shorts, moves the ironing board out on the back lawn under some shade trees and runs a long extension wire to the light socket indoors.

Says she gets a nice sun tan and her work done at the same time.

Sounds like a real sensible idea. Don't you think so?

If we have to fight a cold war this is the time to fight it.

Of course you've seen those smart new blue blazers with the fancy crests that a lot of Edmonton musicians have been sporting lately?

There's a story goes about those blazers as the late Damon Runyon would say.

"They have been purchased by Edmonton Local 390 of the Musicians' Protective Association, (AFL), international organization from a music performance trust fund."

Certain allocations are made to affiliates each year.

Several Edmonton bands and orchestras now have them. They are worn on special occasions, such as Winnie the Pooh Benefit concerts and the like.

Herbert G. Turner, who heads local 390 in Edmonton, passed on this information.

Any kind of a coat is a blazer in this weather.

A lot of people tell me that A. R. Lawrence looks like General Lee. A. R. is that sportsman par excellence, who just goes on forever.

I didn't know General Lee personally, because the Civil War was a couple of years before my time but I understand that Lee surrendered to somebody or other.

A. R. Lawrence never surrendered to anyone and I don't believe he ever will.

Musie Item: Headline: the no-hill parade this week: "There'll be a Hot Time in The Old Town Tonight."

I hope the advertising department boss is a good football fan.

At any rate, Manager Al Anderson of the Eskimo Rugby team would like it widely known that a brand new rugby player from Kansas needs a suite in a hurry.

The new Eskimo has a wife and baby of 10 months.

Anybody who can help out in this case should give Roy Halliouner a jingle on the telephone.

Wonder if it would be fun running a matrimonial bureau?

A peaceful goodnight to all and especially to pedestrians.

Purchasing Department Checkup Is Authorized

City council last night named a special committee of five aldermen to investigate operation of the city's purchasing department.

Purchasing Agent J. M. McCreath told council that at no time during the department's 11 years of operation has council's central purchasing intention been fully adhered to in many instances, he said, the regulations have been "flagrantly disregarded."

There has been a "distinct lack of sincere co-operation from some departments and a spirit of antagonism from others," he said.

No decisive instructions have been issued in the past regarding centralized purchasing and savings disposal.

FAV TOO MUCH
McCreath charged that departments have been buying goods with no reference to his function.

Still considered one of Finland's leading novelists is Juhani Aho (1861-1921), many of whose works are based on the Saana-Andarna native scene.

Some 20 miles of main line track between Dawson Creek and Fort McMurray will be rehabilitated. A large part of that work will be carried on in the Peace River sub-division between Cardston and Lethbridge.

Hundred pound rails will be used to replace the present 60 pounders on a 20 mile stretch between Wainwright and Wemby.

Communication facilities between Edmonton and Dawson Creek, a distance of nearly 500 miles, will be improved by an additional copper wire.

Construction plans call for the erection of new dwellings and enlargement of existing accommodation for company employees at various points. Grain loading and machinery platforms will also be rebuilt or renewed where required.

Balancing and ironworking work will give employment to over 100 men for the greater part of the summer if materials and labor are available as required, said Mr. MacArthur.

Phone Exchange Costs $62.645
Purchase of a two line automatic telephone switchboard for services in the new provincial administration building was approved last night by city council.

Cost of the equipment, to be ordered from Siemens Brothers (Canada) Ltd., Winnipeg, is $62.645. Delivery is promised for December, 1950, to be ready for service when the building is completed early in 1952.

When Mayor Sid Parsons questioned purchase of the equipment for the City Telephone System, he pointed out that telephones in Edmonton are a city monopoly, and return a "handsome profit" to the city.

15 Years As Leader—Still Owns Own Hair

By Maury Soward
Bulletin Staff Writer

Roy Leroy Olson has been conducting 100-piece youth orchestras here for 15 years.

He still has his hair, his pleasant smile and his temper.

And last night, as he led 101 youthful violinists and Hawaiian guitarists through their musical pieces at the Masonic Temple auditorium, he showed no signs of weakening.

It was the spring concert of the Edmonton Junior String Orchestra, easily the largest youth orchestra group in Western Canada. There are 250 of them this year, students at the Dominion Institute of Music, and that means 150 of them will have to crowd into the auditorium again tonight.

At the back rows on each side of the stage, a number of boys are playing the guitar and the violin.

But he kept them controlled under his graceful baton from the time the orchestra started "tuning up" their instruments to the time they started lining up (in five lines) for their picture.

Tax Values For Railway Aftered

Appeal Indicated By CNR Over Edmonton Assessment

City council last night upheld the recent decision of city commissioners setting the 1950 assessment on Canadian National Railways' 75-acre downtown terminal site at $737,800.

TAX VALUES
City Assessor and Tax Collector J. A. MacDonald told council the railway intends to carry its appeal against the assessment to the provincial assessment commission.

Aldermen also upheld commissioners' decisions on assessments of property owned by B. Burdick, N. T. Ambrose, L. Bury, and W. R. W.

The CNR property under appeal comprises 752 acres from 9th street to 11th street, for most of this length 500 feet wide between 10th and 11th avenues. It is exclusive of the right of way.

The city assessor said the CNR is questioning the principles followed in arriving at the $737,800 assessment.

The applicant suggests the valuation of this property should be on a different basis than all other property in the city. There is no provision for the railway in the Edmonton charter, and consequently this department has no alternative but to place a fair and actual value on the property, city assessor reported.

SUPPORT
"It can be definitely stated that the final value of $737,800 is a very conservative valuation and that the city is considering all factors entering into an appraisal of such an area," the city assessor said.

To support its contention that the assessment is too high, the CNR presented letters from Her Majesty the Queen, Lord Edmond, and the City of Edmonton, and the City of Calgary.

Mr. Hervey said that while the assessor's procedure "may be" directed by the city charter, it is strongly urged that the railway should be accorded special treatment.

"It is not that the railway is in a position to pay more than its fair share, but that it is in a position to pay less than its fair share," he said.

SHOPPING GUIDE

First California Apricots Sell Today

By Bea Thrifty

Rumors are rampant today about this, that and everything concerning meat and fresh fruit prices. I've been sitting about like a second-class Mata Hari, keenly close to the local grape-vine, eaves-dropping here and asking leading questions there.

And if you'll promise not to tell a soul... I'll let you in on some "inside rumormongering."

First bit of corn comes with this song and dance about "dumpling tariffs."

Now that's a phraseful of nothing as far as the sale is concerned. But when it's deciphered down to our own, the back-yard fence language it means American fruit will be allowed in the country this year without the usual protective high tariffs.

Reason for this change of financial pace is the sad and serious plight in British Columbia soft fruit orchards. Peaches, apricots, cherries have reached a low ebb in production figures in B.C. this fruitless year. Their supplies will not meet even domestic demands.

There'll be a negative quantity for supplies to other provinces... namely to us in Alberta.

So, to provide Canadians with soft fruit at a reasonable rate, American apricots, peaches, cherries will be imported.

Initial shipment of apricots arrived from California last yesterday to be available for marketing today.

Prices are novelty-high... but not outlandishly so. They're sitting through a round-number, outburst of 53 per case. They'll fluctuate as the brief market period wears.

Quantities and time are restricted. They'll be plentiful for ten days and will fall to rationing after a two-week period of sale.

Homesteaders are warned again and again to take advantage of the preserving apricots immediately.

In previous years the "dumpling duty" or protective tariff has been slapped on American imports to give our B.C. fruitmen first chance at sales. The "tariff" was imposed to discourage American imports of plentiful fruit grown in Canada.

But this ditching of the "dumpling duty" will give our B.C. fruitmen a fairly even keel. The "dumpling" is the situation left as it is. The "dumpling" is the situation left as it is. The "dumpling" is the situation left as it is.

There's no other... and this time it affects meat prices particularly... and nearly everything else specifically.

Talk runs round and about that dollar differences between Canada and United States will be dissolved come the first day of July.

This means Canadian and American dollars will again have the same value for the contrasting purposes. Naturally if this condition is brought about... the beef market will be affected more than somewhat.

At present producers are selling their cattle in American markets where a 10c per dollar price is realized in excess of the Canadian market.

In this day of "never-mind-yourself" finances... the cattle is naturally sitting through to

DOROTHY DIX SAYS

Memory of Worthless Love Still Persists for Woman

DEAR MISS DIX: A young man in love with me who is everything that a man should be. Kind, considerate, dependable, honorable, upright and well-to-do, but with all of these good qualities I do not love him.

I have tried hard enough, but my efforts have been useless. Five years ago I fell in love with a man who really cared nothing for me. I took me out only when he had nothing else to do, when he had to do it, and when he had to do it, he did it.

I took anything just to be with him now and then. Four years have passed since I last met, but he is still in my mind and heart.

Shall I marry this fine fellow who loves me dearly, knowing I will be a dutiful wife, will give him respect, admiration and everything else marriage demands of a wife except love? Can marriage be a success with love only on one side?

WONDERING ANSWER: No, Never. Especially when one of the parties to the marriage loves someone else. For between the husband and wife there will stand forever the shadowy ghost of the old romance that will keep them from ever really going together in love.

There is no truth in the old superstition that a new love automatically kills an old love. Nothing of the kind happens. On the contrary, the very fact that the be-

YOUR BABY AND MINE

Home Influence Vital In Bringing Up Child

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

It's a perennial perplexity to determine how to handle other people's children. Mrs. M. J. thinks if she writes out her problem she will get it off her chest.

There is a boy of eleven in our neighborhood. He picks on the younger children. I have two little boys of nine and six. This boy's stepfather is a convict. His mother had to marry him to legitimize her last baby.

"When he was younger he set fire to my little boy and he threatened to set fire to my home. He calls his mother a terrible name but she won't hear one thing anyone says against him."

STRUCK A CHILD

"He gets mad when he loses at marbles and he squeezes the boy who wins until he gives up what he has won. He took a board with a nail and struck a child on the head making a hole in his head."

"He was transferred from the school here because the teacher could not control him. But the juvenile court let him off scot free and sent him back to his mother. She cannot control him and has no knowledge how to train him. Do you think it is the home influence that is the matter with him?"

Unless the parents and the home environment provide the strongest influence upon children, it is what they are doing what they have done. They themselves are treated which makes them what they are.

COURT HAS CHOICE Unless this child has been institutionalized in some home or a mental defective or so poorly adjusted that he would have to be institutionalized, the juvenile court would have no other solution except to return him to his mother, to relatives or place him with a foster parent.

The boy is so young that he should not be written off as lost. There is much that even you could do to help him.

He feels, at the moment, that the whole world is against him. He is old enough to be humiliated by the fact that he has no real father and his stepfather is a convict. It is to the mother's credit that she tries to think the best of him, despite his treatment of her.

I am sure this boy is under the jurisdiction of the juvenile court. If he becomes a menace to your children you would be well within your rights to bring him to the attention of the court.

But, if you treated the boy kindly, tried to make a friend and not an enemy of him, welcomed him instead of spurning him, you might find a noticeable change in his attitude toward you, children and you.

Fast Play Of Trump Brings About Defeat

By Oswald Jacoby

"Please criticize the bidding of this hand," asks a San Francisco reader. "South thinks that North should have bid only two spades, or perhaps two trump."

"North thinks that his bid of three spades was correct. He also thinks that South should have made the contract, although he doesn't see exactly how."

"In the play, West opened the seven of hearts, dummy played low, and East won with the jack. East returned a club, and dummy won with the king. South drew three rounds of trumps and knocked out the ace of diamonds."

"At this point West led another heart, allowing East to take the queen. East then laid down the ace of hearts, and South was in trouble. If he ruffed with his last trump, he would have to lead to dummy, and dummy would never be able to get out of dummy. Dummy would eventually lose two club tricks, and dealer would therefore be set two tricks. If South failed to ruff the ace of hearts he would be set automatically, since the defense had already taken three tricks."

"Should North and South have bid four spades? If so, how should South have played it? The bidding was quite sound. It would have been a sad mistake for North to bid two trump."

That would encourage a final contract of three trump, for which there is no play at all.

After winning the second trick of four spades without much trouble, the vital point was not to draw trumps so quickly.

South should have made his contract with the king of clubs, dealer should have taken only two rounds of trumps, with the king and the ace. Then he should have switched to diamonds, leaving the last trump out.

West would take the ace of diamonds, and return a heart. However, South could ruff the third round of hearts, take dummy's remaining high diamond, and get back to his hand with the trump and he had so carefully saved.

He would then be in position to cash the jack and ten of diamonds, discarding the losing clubs from dummy.

Safety News

By CECIL "TIGER" GOLDSTICK

Schools will be closing soon and the public playgrounds of the city officially open June 12—and that means the danger of accidents involving youngsters will be on the increase.

So now is the time to sound the warning over accidents—the summer—the happiest time of the year—spelled by traffic accidents.

The way to avoid it is to obey safety rules that have been devised just to help you keep well and happy the play season—and to try and urge others to observe the rules too.

Remember, most accidents are avoidable.

This is the sort of work, saving youngsters from summer's dangers so they can enjoy summer fun, that keeps Whimper, Bill Watson, sponsor of the Bulletin's Whippers Safety Club, on the road traveling from city to city to help spread the word of safety rule observance.

Last Saturday, he visited McCauley Playground here along with Bulletin photographer Eric Hland and myself to talk to the children.

Whimper had his picture taken with the youngsters, then he bought about 40 of them an ice cream cone and a popsicle.

Then he gave them some good advice—the same kind he has been giving youngsters all over Canada.

He emphasized the importance of cases while crossing the streets on the way to and from the playgrounds, with special advice to the older boys and girls to look out for the younger ones.

He said the older ones should help the small fry across the streets near the playgrounds.

He pointed out the director in the playground has enough to do in keeping the program sound and cannot watch out for youngsters on the streets.

Ernest Chief Constable A. Bland is another man, who, like Whimper, has your welfare in mind. He instructed a motorcycle policeman to go with Whimper to the Maple Street Playground after the Whimper visit.

As a matter of fact as Whimper himself said, all policemen are concerned with the welfare of the city's youngsters.

The way for youngsters to get along with policemen was shown during Whimper's visit last Saturday.

Then the boys and girls clustered around traffic constables Lloyd Munson and Doug Ellis.

Whimper said, the youngsters, "These men are your friends. They are here to help you."

It's a good thing to know.

Uncle Wiggily's Bedtime Story

Uncle Wiggily was running away from Hippo's circus because Tipton, the funny stumbling animal, had needed the rabbit gentleman that he was in danger.

"I wonder what the danger was?" asked Uncle Wiggily.

"I don't know," answered the rabbit gentleman. "But when anyone warns you of danger, always remember you must look first for safety."

Jackie looked back and barked: "Someone is running after us!"

"Is that Tipton?" he said. "And, as it is all alone we shall wait for him. Perhaps he will tell us why he wanted us to run away from the circus."

Tipton came stumbling along the road. The circus was back in the woods, far away.

"I hoped I could catch up to you," said Tipton. "I got away from Hippo the circus manager as quickly as I could and ran after you."

"Are you going to run away with us?" asked Uncle Wiggily.

"No," answered Tipton. "I am going back to the circus. I won't tell Hippo that you have run away. He'll find out soon enough but you'll be so far off that he can't catch you. Goodnight."

"Goodnight and thank you!" replied Uncle Wiggily. He was alone. Tipton turned and ran back to the circus, stumbling several times before he reached home.

"Now we must run away fast!" said Uncle Wiggily.

"I'll run along for some time from Hippo's circus. The circus is in a hole to eat some milk and cream. Sammie put his paw in the pocket. A strange look showed on his face.

"What's the matter?" asked Uncle Wiggily.

"I've had Sammie. That funny bean," said Sammie.

"Tell you more tomorrow!" said Uncle Wiggily.

Federal Cabinet Shake-up Seen

Finance Minister Abbott May Resign After House Recesses

OTTAWA, June 13.—(BUP)—Finance Minister Douglas Abbott is expected to step down from Canada's top financial post after parliament recesses for the summer.

It was understood in Ottawa today that he is seeking to exchange his present cabinet job for presenting five national budgets.

A number of cabinet changes are expected to be announced by Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent shortly after the prorogation of parliament.

PRUDHAM MOVES UP

James St. Laurent, Abbott's parliamentary assistant is expected to replace Fisheries Minister Robert Menzies, British Columbia cabinet member who may soon be named to the Senate.

Senator James A. McKinnon, minister without portfolio from Alberta, also is expected to resign from the cabinet. He will be replaced by George Prudham, parliamentary assistant to resources minister Robert Winters.

There are two suggestions current in parliamentary circles for filling

Abbott's new appointment. One was that he might exchange portfolios with Justice Minister Stuart Garson.

MAY GET TWO POSTS

The other suggested that he might be given two portfolios—public works and the recently created mines and technical surveys.

The present public works minister, Alphonse E. Poirier, is understood to be anxious to retire from active politics. At present, however, Minister J. J. McCann holds the mines and technical surveys portfolio, with most of the work being handled by his parliamentary assistant, Ralph Maybank, of Winnipeg South Centre.

JAIL DECIDED WRONG PLACE FOR NEWSMEN

BATON ROUGE, La., June 13.—(AP)—A Louisiana senate committee decided last night a jail term is "not the answer" for an editor and a publisher whose newspaper called senate members "trained seals" of Governor Earl Long.

The committee had the power to recommend that publisher David Stern and editor Clayton Fritchew of the New Orleans Item be imprisoned up to 10 days for contempt.

"We do not, however, intend to dignify their positions by such actions," said its report.

Naval War Hero Dies In Britain

LONDON, June 13.—(AP)—Admiral Sir Henry H. Harwood, hero of Britain's first major sea victory in the second world war, died last week at his home in Oxfordshire, the admiralty announced yesterday. He was 62.

Sir Henry commanded the cruisers Exeter, Achilles and Ajax which chased the German pocket battleship Graf Spee in the South Atlantic in December, 1939, and bottled her up in the Plate river estuary.

Alberta Hotel Business Is $100 Million Deal

Hotels are big business in Alberta with an investment of more than $100 million in 395 hotels employing 2,500 persons.

These figures were given to the 26th annual meeting of the Alberta Hotel Association by A. G. Swinton of Macleod in his presidential address to the two-day convention in the Macdonald hotel, Tuesday.

Hotels will set an even higher standard of service in the future, he said.

"Owners and operators must have hotels which are a credit and pride to the province; travelers must be assured of a home-like atmosphere, coupled with courtesy and friendliness."

FORM OF SUBSIDY

Turning to the sale of beer, he said the fundamental reason for its sale was in that through the years it has been found impossible for hotel or innkeepers to furnish accommodation at a reasonable price unless subsidized by some means.

"For the privilege of selling beer we are able to supply accommodation at rates which are within the reach of all."

Warning the hotelmen they "must guard on all violations of the liquor act," he said government regulations worked out for the benefit of all.

Five new hotels have been built within the past year, all conforming with the high standards of hotels throughout the province, he said.

The more than 300 delegates from all parts of Alberta were welcomed on behalf of the city by Mayor Sid Parsons.

The convention will be addressed later today by A. J. Mason, chairman of the Liquor Control Board, and Hon. Ivan Casey, minister of education.

Magistrate Seen In Jasper Place

Village of Jasper Place may soon have its own resident police magistrate.

Complaining in effect justice was too slow when village police officer Lawrence Kennedy had to travel into Edmonton to have cases tried in city police court, council decided last night to apply to the attorney-general's department for the village magistrate.

Justice of the Peace R. E. Cunningham, currently trying traffic infraction and other minor cases in the village will continue his duties, councillors said.

Sea Cadets Camp In B.C.

Over 100 juvenile sailors from Edmonton, Camrose and Wetaskiwin will journey to Camp Latona on B.C.'s Gambier Island in July.

This was announced following a regular monthly meeting of the executive committee of the Navy League of Canada (Northern Alberta Division), last night.

Approximately 120 Sea Cadets from this area will make the trip to the salt stacks for fun and training in seamanship, according to the announcement.

LOCAL CADETS

Five Edmonton Sea Cadets will also journey to Halifax soon to take a gunnery course at HMCS Cornwallis and two Sea Cadets officers will go to Winnipeg for special training.

It was also announced that Margaret Ann Somer, Botha, Alta. school girl had second prize in the junior division in Alberta of the Navy League's national essay contest.

She will be presented with Navy League of Canada bronze medal.

Breaks Located In Paving Jobs

Spring break-up failures have appeared in the experimental "Harcov-type" asphalt paving laid last year by the city.

More than four miles of the paving was done on an experimental basis to determine if expenditures would prove economically sound over a period of years, the city engineer reported to last night's council meeting.

Commissioner D. B. Menzies said "in one place the base was not thick enough, and other portions were done on an old base," he said.

All the trouble has been in the gutters, and mostly in those paying jobs done on creosote.

It was pointed out to council that if additional work of a similar nature is authorized this year, it should be on a continuation of the experimental basis, and that "experimental failures may occur under certain spring conditions."

The two bottom corners of a square will be called cove.

OTTAWA, June 13.—(CP)—The senate's divorce committee wants a divorce from its job.

In its 24th and final session, the committee presented yesterday a report setting up suitable tribunals before which cases from Quebec and Newfoundland can be heard. Other provinces have their own divorce courts but Quebec and Newfoundland cases have to go through the parliamentary mill.

The report was presented by Sen. W. M. Aestline, 64-year-old Roslawn, Sask. lawyer and farmer and father of five who said he was quitting after 10 years as committee chairman. The reason, he said, was that his duties as deputy leader of the 13-member Progressive Conservative opposition in the Upper Chamber made it impossible for him to continue as a member of the committee where he has served for 16 years.

MOSTLY WIVES

The divorce committee provided statistics to show the growth of divorce petitions to parliament in the last eight years. In 1942 there were 73 petitions granted. From there it rose to 1943-111; 1944-179; 1945-200; 1946-248; 1947-292; 1948-348; 1949-384; 1950-428; 1951-468; 1952-508; 1953-548; 1954-588; 1955-628; 1956-668; 1957-708; 1958-748; 1959-788; 1960-828.

Most of the petitioners are wives. In 1946 husbands obtained 3,616 divorces and wives got 4,067. In 1957 it was 3,539 to husbands and 4,666 to wives; in 1958, 3,641 to husbands and 4,238 to wives and in 1959, 3,539 to husbands and 3,675 to wives.

In its final report of the session, the committee included this statistical table showing divorces granted in various provinces, excluding Newfoundland, during the last eight years.

Canada, Soviet Hold Daily Weather Confabs

OTTAWA, June 13.—(BUP)—Canada and the Soviet Union are exchanging news regularly about weather conditions in the strategic Arctic regions, the Commons external affairs committee was told yesterday.

"Without this exchange of information, forecasters would not be able to predict conditions on the Arctic coast," it was explained.

P. D. McTaggart-Cowan, assistant controller of meteorological services, said the two countries send weather forecasts to each other by radio. They are 24 hours in advance for aircraft and 24 hours in advance for shipping, he said. Printed records are not exchanged.

The committee was considering a new international convention setting up a world meteorological organization under the United Nations. It approved Canada's participation in the body.

Howard Green (PC—Vancouver-Quebec) raised the possibility that the exchange of weather information from Russia for strategic reasons would be used to provide it under the convention.

New Tax Pact With States Is Announced

OTTAWA, June 13.—(CP)—New steps were taken by Canada and the United States today to avoid double taxation of their citizens and to tighten regulations designed to prevent income tax evasion.

Under terms of two agreements signed in Ottawa yesterday, Canadians will be able to obtain increased exemptions in United States earnings, while Americans will enjoy similar privileges in Canada.

The new agreements consist of amendments to existing tax conventions between the two countries. The amendments do not make any major changes in the old agreements signed in 1942 and 1944, but rather broaden the scope of some double-taxation exemption clauses and clarify or make technical changes in several other clauses.

One amendment will allow a Canadian temporarily in the U.S. to earn up to $5,000 there for personal or professional services in any one year without being subject to U.S. income tax, providing he is not in the U.S. for a period, or periods, exceeding 183 days.

SAME TO U.S.

The same exemptions are granted by Canada to U.S. citizens.

The amendment broadens the scope of the old agreement, which in some cases restricted the exemptions to $1,000 over a period of 60 days. As in the old agreement, actors, artists, musicians and professional athletes are specifically excluded from this exemption.

A new clause will allow professional athletes who are residents of one of the contracting countries to temporarily accept employment in the other country for the purpose of teaching for a period not exceeding two years without being subject to income tax on the earnings from such teaching by the country in which he (or she) is teaching.

Many authors, playwrights and musicians are freed from double taxation on royalties from their works under another new clause.

Undertaker Killed

WALDORF, Md., June 13.—(AP)—A few hours before undertaker Waldorf was to be buried, he was killed in a tractor accident.

Waldorf was a 40-year-old man who was driving a tractor when it overturned, crushing him. He was a well-known figure in the community and was highly respected.
